Munich Art Village Artist Group Exhibition 德國慕尼黑藝術家聯展

來自德國慕尼黑三個大型藝術村的二十多位藝術家，他們有的祖籍德國，有的定居或旅居歐洲。其中一個規模最大的藝術村 Domagkatellers 早在一九九三年便在這裡出現，其前身可追溯至一九三六年希特勒曾在此處作為軍事活動基地和軍火貯藏庫。於二〇〇五年，軍營大樓改建成現存藝術工作室。過去整個軍營佔地八公頃，樓房復蓋面積六千多平方米，最興旺的時期有過二百多個獨立工作室，三百多位藝術家，是歐洲當中一個最大型的藝術羣組。而這次展覽有攝影、繪畫，不同材料的雕塑、銅板畫、木板畫，以及多媒體。

More than 20 artists coming from three large-scale art villages in Munich, among which are those with German ancestry, those who have settled down or are still traveling across Europe. Domagkatellers, the largest arts village among these villages, appeared as early as the year 1993. With its history tracing all the way back to 1963 when it was used by Hitler as a military base storing firearms. The military compound was rebuilt into a workshop for modern arts in 2005. Being a military base covering over 8 hectares in the past, the main building covers more than 6000 square feet, housing 200 separate workshops and 300 artists at its peak. It is considered the largest artistic group in Europe. The present exhibition includes photography, painting, sculpture build of various materials, etching, wood print, as well as multimedia.
